	reviewing its in-house Chemical Dependency and Case Management Program goals to provide more holistic services. They hope to be able to address issues such as budgeting and pre-employment preparation. Island: They recently completed their school year end report for only four months and the numbers are extremely high. She emphasized the program is going well and school administrators, teachers, etc. are pleased with the program. They are starting a new outreach program for seniors/elderly experiencing mental health problems and the program is going well. She said referrals for this program are coming in from law enforcement, senior services and adult protective services. She said they hope to have their program for those people that are non-Medicaid or uninsured and need mental health services. It is hoped to be available in the fall.
OMBUDS REPORT
Chuck Davis	Chuck gave his report. Chuck affirmed they are seeing the highest numbers seen in quite some time. He emphasized there are no major/identifiable trends. Chuck mentioned the Compass Health closures and said the Ombuds are making the following four recommendations due to travel time required for individuals living in Langley that do not have their own transportation. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The travel situation should be brought up, discussed and targeted as a treatment plan item for clients caught up in this dilemma • For clients in this situation, clinicians must ensure they keep these appointments or notify the clients well in advance of the scheduled appointment if they will not be able to keep it. • If these clients receive meds management, as well as, other services, all appointments should be scheduled for the same day to avoid multiple travel days. • Compass Health should confer with Para-transit, a Medicaid transportation agency in Snohomish, to advise them that closing facilities may put an extra burden on them.
