POLICY #4518.00

SUBJECT: PUBLIC AWARENESS OF MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES

POLICY

North Sound Mental Health Administration (NSMHA) will provide public information on availability of mental health services in the region.

NSMHA providers will publish and maintain listings in the five county telephone directories. The telephone number for crisis services will be displayed prominently in the telephone directories. NSMHA will ensure its brochure is available in public places, such as, but not limited to, libraries, Community Service Offices and juvenile justice facilities in the service area.

PROCEDURE

NSMHA will ensure providers are complying with their contractual obligation of publicizing mental health services in their service area. NSMHA will ensure its brochure is available and placed in public places by mailing with the US Postal Service, by visiting locations within the service area and making available on our website; brochures in English, Spanish, Cambodian, Russian, Vietnamese, Ukrainian, Laotian, Korean, Japanese, Chinese, German and Tagalog.
